e-Planning Forum / Jornadas e-Planning

14 December 2011

(14h00-19h30)

Location: FLAD – The Luso-American Development Foundation

Rua do Sacramento à Lapa, 21, Lisboa

The purpose of this Forum is to promote the dialogue between researchers with ongoing projects in e-Planning (e.g. e-citizenship, e-governance, e-government, e-city and e-territory, e-infrastructures), and the communities / institutions that host them.

Inspired by MIT's Media Lab motto – “Publish or Perish”, but also “Demo or Die” –, the e-Planning Forum intends to go beyond the traditional model of communication, creating both a space and an opportunity to see and reflect the potential of tools, systems and approaches that we call “e-planning”. This will be the place and the time for communities and institutions to discuss with researchers their needs and their views on projects and approaches that are still under development.
